FORTY PEOPLE ARE DROWNED

Steamer Dix Collided With Steamer Jeanie in Pudget Sound Last Night

And About Forty Persons Were Rescued From the Ill-Fated Boat

[Special to the Daily Republican.] Seattle, November 19.—The steamer Dix, Capt. P. Lermom, bound from Seattle to Port Blakely, with passengers, sank two miles north of Alki Point, shortly after 7 o'clock last night, after having been in collision with the steamship Jeanie, Capt. P.
H. Mason, of the Alaska Coast company.

Forty-one passengers and members of the crew of the Dix are missing and thirty-nine are known to have been saved. The Dix is a total wreck.
The Jeanie was not injured in the least, and no member of her crew was lost. The master of the Dix was saved. The collision occurred while the sound was almost as smooth as a mill pond, and after the boats had been standing within sight of each other for a quarter of an hour.

The Jeanie was backing when she crashed into the Dix, and the impact was very slight. The Dix was struck abaft of midships on the starboard side. She listed heavily to port for a brief period, righted herself, then sank stern first. There was hardly time to launch life rafts or boats before she was almost entirely submerged. Passengers jumped from the decks into the water; women screamed and officers and men called orders that could hardly be heard above the din.

WILL BUILD THEIR OWN HOME

Rushville Co-operative Company Buys the O. M. Dale Property

As announced in the Republican Saturday evening, the Rushville Cooperative Telephone company consummated a deal whereby a purchase of the O. M. Dale property on North Main street was effected for a consideration of $3000. The building now on the lot is a frame structure, occupied by Drs. W. H. and W. C. Smith, and was built by E. O. Dale. This building will be torn down, and a modern building erected purposely for the installation of a telephone plant, will go up soon. Offices for the two doctors will be provided on the ground floor.
The telephone company is one of the most prosperous institutions in this community and it is worthy of commendation, for the expenditures of their earnings in adding every modern appliance to the plant, and making it one of the best in the State.

The deal was closed at a call meeting of the telephone company Saturday in the office of Watson, Titsworth & Green.

Example of Thrift.

til six p. m. and got night rates."—

P. O. BOX RENT MUST BE PAID IN ADVANCE

Postmaster McFarlan Receives Order From Department to That Effect

Hereafter renters of boxes at the postoffice must pay the rental at the beginning of each quarter instead of at the end as has been the custom for a good many years. Postmaster Mc-Farlan has just received an order from the department at Washington to that effect. The order is as follows:
"Box rent must be collected at the beginning of each quarter for the entire quarter but not longer. Ten days before the last day of each quarter the postmasters are required to place a bill bearing the date of the last day of the quarter in each rented box. If the box holder fails to renew his right to his box on or before the last day of the quarter the box shall then be closed and offered for rent and mail shall be placed in the general delivery."

SEVERAL SOCIETY LEADERS ON LIST

Shelbyville's Boycotted Habitual Drunkards Add Society
Leaders to the List

An interesting sequel followed the boycotting of a number of habitual drunkards at Shelbyville.

The men charged with being habit-ual drunkards by written notices furnished to the saloon keepers and druggists of the city, the notice threatening arrest if any intoxicating liquors were sold to any of the men, held an indignation meeting on Saturday, so it is reported, and quite a mix-up is promised. The list furnished the saloon keepers and druggists of the city contained twenty-nine names of men residing in that city, who were accused of being habitual drunkards.

The men met at a home of one of the men and drew up a list of men higher up in society than any of the men named on the list and in a day or two will notify the saloon keepers and druggists of the city to refuse to sell intoxicating liquors.

From an outsider's stand point of view, the situation is growing amusing, but from the view of one directly connected with the "works" the outcome is doubtful, extremely so.

Threats of all kinds have been made and some of the men charged with being habitual drunkards have even said they intend suing the city for damages. Things are at a fever heat and the turmoil has not half begun.
There will be a stir yet in old Shelby-ville that will set tongues wagging should the plans of the men accused of being habitual drunkards be carried out.

WATSON SPOKE ON AN IDEAL

At Big Meeting of Y. M. C. A. in Indianapolis Yesterday Afternoon

Hundreds Turned Away From Meeting Where Watson Delivered Great Lecture

Many people were turned away yesterday at the "Big Y. M. C. A.
Meeting" at the English opera house in Indianapolis, where Congressman Watson of this city delivered a lecture. Speaking of the meeting the Indianapolis Star says: "With his lecture on 'The Power of an Ideal,' James E.
Watson, of Rushville, congressman from the Sixth district, held an audience of 1941 men, by actual count, in close attention yesterday afternoon at the second of the 'Big Meetings' of the Young Men's Christian Association in English's opera house. The capacity of the theatre was taxed to the utmost, the crowd being larger than the crowd at the first meeting on the previous Sunday by 500. Standing room was taken throughout the theatre and over 100 men were turned away from the doors."

"Mr. Watson's lecture abounded in brilliant epigrams, everyone of which carried a truth. The trend of his discussion was that the individual ideal is associated with the national ideal and that the individual ideal molds character and character molds destiny. 'We hear much in this day and age about the ideal,' said Mr. Watson, 'yet we do not stop to think what an ideal is. An ideal is a standard. It is what each and every citizen wants this Republic to be. It is what each citizen wants his individual self to be.'"

"The speaker said that everything that we now have in the material form was once an ideal. They sprang from the mind of some one and are inward thoughts outwardly expressed in the material,' he said."

Following are a few of the choice excerpts from Mr. Watson's speech:
"An ideal is a standard. It is what every citizen wants himself to be. It is inward thought outwardly expressed in the material."

"This Republic is a divine thought molded from an ideal of God. He has wrought into it marvelous philosophy."

"The one ideal which has run through the thread of time is the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man."

"The United States Government was the first Government to embody the ideal of the fatherhood of God and the ideal of brotherhood of man in its foundation."

"The atheist sees only the evil in the system, while the Christian sees both the evil and the good and eliminates the evil."

"The anti-trust agitation in this country today is the result of the national ideal of the equality of men."
"The individual ideal does not consist of wealth but of goodness."

SAW THE SHOWERS OF STARS IN 1833

Writing to the New Castle Courier, David Wickersham, of Spiceland, says:
"I have read your article in Monday's daily relative to the great star shower.
I think you had the date wrong. The event occurred November 13th, 1833.
I witnessed it. It began about 10 o'clock p. m., and continued until daybreak the next morning. It appears as if the heavens were on fire with shooting stars. I wonder how many people who saw that display are yet living in Rush or Henry counties."

still practice archery. Sir Ralph Galwey is said to be the most expert, and it is further said that it is no uncommon thing for him to shoot an arrow a quarter of a mile and hit his target.

IT'S A "BUFFALO"

Counterfeit Ten Dollar Note Being Circulated and It's Hard to Distinguish

The United States service announces the discovery of a new counterfeit $10 "Buffalo" United States note.
This counterfeit is apparently a photolithographic production, printed on two pieces of paper with silk fiber distributed between them. The face of the note is grayish black. The numbering, seal and large (X) ten are of good color and workmanship. The check letter and plate number do not appear in the lower right-hand corner. The back of the note is a dark bluish green.

By itself this counterfeit is apt to deceive, but when handled with genuine notes the marked difference in the color of the back should lead to its immediate detection.

TO SAVE CHILDREN

Senator Beveridge Will Present a Bill to This End In Congress.

Richmond, Ind., Nov. 19.—At a meeting here Sunday of representatives of the Young Men's Christian associations of Indiana and Ohio, Senator Albert J. Beveridge stated that upon the opening day of the coming session of congress he intended to introduce a bill to make more rigid the present meat inspection law.

He said the child labor bill will provide that no railroad, steamship, steamboat or other carrier of interstate commerce shall transport or accept for transportation the product of any factory or mine that employs children under fourteen years of age.
The bill, he said, would provide that every carrier of interstate commerce shall require an affidavit from every factory or mine owner shipping its produce that it does not employ children under fourteen years of age, the form of the affidavit to be prescribed by the department of commerce and labor or the interstate commerce commission with heavy penalties, both civil and criminal, for violation of the law. The bill, if it becomes a law, he believed, will stop the practice of ruining future citizenship by working children of tender age in factories and mines. There is no other way, he said, to reach this growing evil.
A federal statute cannot be passed directly controlling the factories and mines in the states. That is the provi-ence of the states. But congress has absolute power over the railroads, boats, ships and other agencies of interstate commerce and unlimited powers under the constitution to provide that they shall not carry the products of factories and mines which employ children.

The bill to amend the meat inspection law will require the putting of the date of inspection on every can of meat product and the packers to pay the cost of inspection. These two provisions, he said, are demanded by the people, and agitation for them will not cease until these provisions become a part of the law.

SOCIETY NEWS

A quiet wedding took place at nine o'clock Saturday evening in Carthage at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Duncan on North Walnut street. The bride was their daughter Miss Jessie and the groom was Mr. John Nordlan of Arlington. Rev. M. V. Foster of the Christian church pronounced the ceremony in the presence of the immediate families of the contracting parties. Mr. and Mrs. Nordlan left amid showers of rice and rain for their home at Arlington which they had in readiness for housekeeping.
Mrs. Chas Kinder and daughter of Indianapolis were present at the marriage.

HAVE EPIDEMIC OF DIPHTHERIA

Walnut Ridge Neighborhood in Throes of the Dread Disease

Dr. J. A. Sipe Confers With State Health Officer J. N. Hurty in Indianapolis

[Special to the Daily Republican.] Carthage, Ind., November 19.—For almost a month sore throats have been prevalent in the Walnut Ridge school, near Carthage, and when it was rumored a few days ago that diphtheria had made its appearance, considerable alarm was occasioned among the patrons and children. Dr. J. A. Sipe sent some cultures to Dr. J. N. Hurty at Indianapolis. The latter telegraphed that they were diphtheria germs. Trustee J. D. White acting upon this information, and the wishes of teachers and parents, has advised the closing of the Walnut Ridge school for an indefinite period. To date there are about half a dozen cases of genuine diphtheria in this neighborhood.

SAYS HE WOULD CHOOSE THE DEVIL

Rev. McNeill, Formerly of this City, Preaches Strong
Sermon Yesterday

"If Christ when He came into the world had alighted upon some Alpine peak and had erected thereon a tall tower and placed in it a big iron bell, which when rung twice or thrice a Sunday would have extended an invitation, 'Come to Me or go to the devil,' we would all be on our way to the devil," declared the Rev. John H.
MacNeill, of Kokomo, who addressed the last of the union meetings in the simultaneous evangelistic campaign of the fourteen Christian churches of the city in Tomlinson Hall yesterday afternoon, says the Indianapolis Star.

Rev. MacNeill preached a powerful sermon, declaring that more work was needed in church affairs.

Rev. MacNeill was pastor of the Main Street Christian church in this city for several years and has a host of friends here, several of whom attended the meeting yesterday.

CULTURED WOMAN ASKS FOR LIBRARY

Mrs. Donnan Surprised that Rushville Has Not Secured a Carnegie Library

Mrs. Donnan's English literature class had another interesting meeting Saturday afternoon at the Social Club.
She read a number of classics, including poems, fiction and history. Nearly all the members were in attendance.

Mrs. Donnan spoke of the sad need of a public library in this city, and asked why Mr. Carnegie had never been consulted in the matter.

This has set many to thinking and it may result in a movement being started for such an institution here.

And why not? All the adjoining cities which do not compare with this city in the matter of culture, have partaken of the generosity of this noble philanthropist and noble benefactor.

AGED HACKMAN AT HOPE, STILL ON DUTY

Traveling Men Now Patronize Him On Account of His Age

Lewis Sultz, of Hope, has the reputation of being a sort of a stage coach wonder. Mr. Shultz, who is past eighty-two years of age, still drives a hack to and from the Big Four station. The old man, it is said, carries no watch, yet he is able to tell just what time the train is due, and he never misses being at the station at the proper moment. Shultz is an old hand at the business, having driven a hack or a stage coach ever since he came to this country over thirty years ago. He drove a stage route from Greensburg to Hope for several years and drove a hack from St. Louis to Hope after this. Ever since the Big Four went through from here to Greensburg, Shultz has met every train. He has never been off duty for any length of time since then. So accustomed have the drummers, who make Hope become to the aged hack driver that they always let him haul their grip or do some turn for them, even though they prefer to walk, simply that they may patronize the old veteran.

PEDAGOGUE IN POLITICAL ARENA

Former Rush County Teacher Takes a Whirl at the Political Games

J. M. Hufford who formerly taught school in this county and who went to Colorado Springs, Colo., for his health writes an interesting letter full of politics, to a relative.

"As to your comparison between my candidacy and that of Mr. Hearst," said Mr. Hufford "the simile is still an apt one so far as election results show."

Mr. Hufford was nominated for county superintendent by the Democrats and an independent league of his county this year, and writes further that, "the Democratic party in this county went down in defeat to the tune of 2500, your humble servant out by 593, and I am receiving numerous congratulations on 'a great run' but that don't help the case." He says further that the entire Republican ticket is elected in this State.

He says "In this State the Socialists had as a candidate for governor a man named Hayward, who is now, and has been for six months in a penitentiary in Idaho. The Independent party had up for their candidate, Judge Ben B. Lindsey, who has acquired a national reputation as a reformer, and who has received the endorsement of the whole country on his work as judge of the Juvenile court, which has saved thousands of boys and girls. Hayward received twice as many votes as Lindsey, so what is the use of being good."

"My run in some respects was phenomenal. I had never been in politics and knew nothing of the game. I was not known as a teacher, as I have not taught since coming to the State.
The rest of the ticket was composed of good men and those who were well known in business and professional life. Yet I led the ticket by 2000. They tell me that I ought to be proud of it and in some respects I am."

other day she crossed the ocean upon it, the Allan line honoring it.

ALMOST KILLED IN HEAVY FALL

Ralph Bankert Fell Thirty Feet While Making "Slide for Life" Yesterday

Suffered Concussion of Brain Broken Wrists and Gash in the Forehead

While making a "slide for life" at his home south of this city yesterday about one o'clock, Ralph, the sixteen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. S. K.
Bankert, fell thirty feet from the top of a barn, and sustained injuries which may prove fatal.

He had a wire stretched from the gable of the barn to a guy post some distance away and had made several successful slides during the past week.
Yesterday to prove his daring, in the presence of a few neighboring boys, he climbed to the top of the barn to repeat the feat. But as he started off the perilous descent, the apparatus, which he was holding to, broke and he fell into a gravel pile below. His wrist was broken in two places, a deep gash was cut in his forehead, his body bruised in many places, and it is thought the young lad sustained internal injuries which may prove fatal.

He was picked up for dead and all day yesterday he remained in an unconscious condition, but today was partially conscious. Dr. Frank Green, who attended him, cannot yet determine the extent of his injuries, but says he thinks he will recover. The doctor says he has concussion of the brain. He raved at times yesterday and it required several persons to hold and quiet him.

It seems as if fate has marked the Bankert home with ill luck, for they have suffered many trials and tribulations in the past year. Last summer the boy was riding a cow in a field, when he was thrown to the ground and suffered a broken collar bone.

The readers of this paper are familiar with the killing of Norman Cook, by Ralph's mother, Mrs. Anna Bankert, the self-confessed slayer who has been tried twice and who is still under indictment for murder, but who contends it was done in self defense.

The boy was one of the principal witnesses at the murder trial, and won the applauds of all interested in the case for the straight forward manner in which he told his story.

Smart Clothes For Young Men.

We don't know how old is the man who designs the Garson Meyer Clothes for young men, but we do know that he must be young in heart, for he gets into the clothes all the vim and snap and spirit that young fellows admire. The clothes are just as different as can be from those designed for older wearers, —they've a lot of style kinks that are mighty becoming to young fellows, though they may not be sedate enough for older men. The patterns are bright and livelier too—though never loud—and in all ways the clothes are just the sort that young chaps who know what's what in style demand. No other clothier in town shows such smart clothes for young men.

RUSHVILLE, IND., NOV. 19, 1906

It is very likely that the Democrat will have a public depositories bill in the coming legisla are similar to the one that will be introduced by the Republicans. Governor Hanly and Attorney General Miller have given their endorsement to the one framed by the Indianapolis Bar association and favored by the State Bar association. Chairman Goodrich of the Republican central committee, however, is opposed to it and many bankers are inclined to follow his lead. He takes issue with the governor on the proposition that collateral securities such as municipal and county bonds must be given by the depositories as security for the money intrusted to them. He figures that at least $25,000,000 worth of these bonds would be required and there are not half that many in the state. Chairman Goodrich is well informed on the subject and he intends to take a lead in obtaining a good law. Many bankers are opposed to the public depositories proposition for the reason that it will eliminate the graft of the "political banker" and further because they do not think there is any necessity for it. Some of them are saying now that it will be impossible to devise a system under which the funds can be lent without favoritism, which must be avoided if the present system is to be improved. At any rate, there does not seem to be any doubt that both parties will eventually unite on some public depositories measure.

If there is a serious split between the governor and the men who managed the Republican campaign it will be over any attempt he may make to line up the party's representatives in behalf of the anti-saloon league's bill for an amendment to the Moore law to provide for county and city remonstrances against applications for retail liquor license. The governor, it is said, has made up his mind to recommend the extension of the power of remonstrance to cities and counties and will discuss the matter in his message to the legislature unless he is induced to cut it out. Party leaders, however, take the ground that the temperance forces ought to be satisfied with the Moore law, which has enabled them to drive hundreds of saloons out of business and to confine the liquor traffic to the larger communities. Statistics kept on file at the office of the anti-saloon league show that dozens of small places are "going dry" under the application of the Moore law. Practically all of the party leaders on the Republican side favored the Moore law two years ago on the ground that it was not unreasonable, but now they say that a county and city remonstrance plan is not a necessity and that the governor and the anti-saloon league should not attempt to enact it.

It was learned today from trustworthy sources that most of the private bankers who attended the state bankers' meeting last week were convinced that it would be folly for them to attempt to prevent the enactment of a law for state supervision of their institutions and that they will now turn in and help pass a law that will be fair to both sides. Their principal interest will be in bringing about a change in the method of taxing their property.

Cracksmen Caught at It.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Nov. 19.—George T. Miller, a saloon keeper, discovered a burglar drilling a hole through the back door of his saloon with a brace and bit at 3 o'clock in the morning. He fired at the crook through the door and the bullet struck the hand holding the brace. The burglar fell back but arose quickly and escaped. Spots of blood were found on the door.

Dedication of Basilica Had Attracted a Great Crowd.

When Bomb Exploded a Panic Was Created But Vast Size of Edifice Prevented a Crush.

Rome, Nov. 19.—A bomb was exploded in St. Peters Sunday. The edifice was crowded and an indescribable scene of confusion followed. There were no fatalities. As soon as the echoes of the tremendous roar had ceased, a canon sought by reassuring words to quiet the people, but in vain. They fled in all directions and a number of women fainted. Women and children screamed and men tried to protect their families in the crush. The church is so large, however, that there was ample room for the crowd to scatter and no one was injured. No trace of the perpetrator of the deed has been found.

Since Saint Anacletus, who was ordained by Peter himself, erected an oratory in 90 A. D., on the site of the present basilica to mark the spot where the remains of St. Peter are buried, no such dastardly occurrence is noted in the annals of the church.

Sunday was the anniversary of the dedication of the basilica to St. Peter and it was beautifully decorated for the occasion. Holy relics were exposed and a large number of the faithful attended the services. Cardinal Rampolla, formerly papal secretary of state, was among those present. He took part in the service in the choir chapel. The last mass had just been concluded when the explosion occurred, and only one canon, who had not quite finished, remained at the altar of St. Petronilla. This altar is at the end of the right aisle, and it was near here that the bomb had been placed. As the canon turned to bless the communicants there was a tremendous roar, which echoed through the lofty arches of the immense dome like a thunder clap. At the same time a dense smoke spread throughout this portion of the basilica and a strong odor of gunpowder filled the air. Confusion and panic at once seized the people. The canon at the altar tried to stem the tide of fear. He shouted out: "Do not be afraid; it's nothing, merely the noonday gun."

His words, however, had little effect. They were refuted by smoke and a pungent smell of powder, and the people continued their headlong flight. Chairs were overthrown, making the confusion more serious. Men and women fled, stumbling in all directions, the screams of children and cries of anguish were heard on all sides and for a few minutes it seemed as if nothing could obviate a grave disaster. The vast size of the church, however, gave room for the crowd to scatter and at the end of a few moments the people were surging toward the doors, excited and nervous, but orderly.

As soon as the smoke cleared away a hasty examination showed that nobody had been hurt in the crush and that no one had been wounded by the explosion. Calm was gradually restored and people returned to view the extent of the damage.

It was discovered that the bomb had been placed under a scaffolding which had been erected to facilitate repairs to the roof, exactly over the celebrated tomb of Clement XIII., by Caonva. When the first gendarmes reached the spot the scaffolding was found to be smoldering, but this fire was easily extinguished. The tomb was found to be absolutely uninjured, and even the pavement shows scarcely any signs of the explosion. An examination of the remains of the bomb leads to the supposition, unless it was crudely prepared on purpose to mislead, that it was manufactured in the country and brought into Rome. It is believed that the bomb had a very long fuse in order to enable the criminal to gain the piazza before the explosion. It has been impossible to trace him, and no one has any recollection of seeing a man who by his movements might have aroused suspicion.

The pope was engaged in his regular noon-hour devotions when the bomb went off. He heard a muffled sound which surprised but did not alarm him. Monsignor Misiclatelli, sub-prefect of the apostolic palaces, and Monsignor Bisleti, major domo of the vatican, at once hurriedly entered the pontiff's chamber. They were so pale that the pope immediately asked: "What has happened?"

"Do not be alarmed, holy father," was the answer, "a bomb has exploded in the basilica, but fortunately there are no deaths to deplore and no one has been wounded."

The pontiff asked anxiously if the church had been injured. Upon being reassured, he fell on his knees, saying he must implore mercy for the misguided perpetrator of the deed.

A three-days' service of prayer will be celebrated in all the churches in expiation of this offense to religion. This bomb explosion makes the third anarchist outrage in Italy in four days, the other two being the murder of Prof. Rossi in Naples Saturday, and the explosion of a bomb in front of the Cafe Aragno in this city on Nov. 14. The attempt of Sunday has caused deep-seated and universal horror and indignation on account of the locality selected by the miscreants, and the resentment of the people is very great. The commission of such an outrage in such a place has called forth unlimited condemnation and is characterized as proving that the perpetrators of the crime were actuated by feelings worse than those which moved the Vandals and the Saracens. The theory is held that this attempt was not directed against the papacy, but rather a challenge to society in general by attacking religion, the most sacred institution of the people.

PITTSBURG RELIEVED

Epidemic of Crime in That City Has Apparently Subsided.

Pittsburg, Nov. 19.—The epidemic of crime that has swept over this city and vicinity since Nov. 2 has apparently run its course. Sunday only a few small burglaries were reported to the authorities. During the past seven days three murders were caused by thugs bent on robbery; car-bolic acid was thrown in one woman's face, disfiguring her for life; half a hundred men were badly beaten; a hundred or more men and women were held up on the streets at the point of a revolver and robbed; houses in all sections of the city were broken into and thousands of dollars worth of plunder stolen; scores of suspicious persons have been arrested and sent to the workhouse; 200 additional policemen were added to the police force and rewards aggregating $7,000 were offered for the arrest of the murderers of James A. McMillen and Henry F. Smith. Detectives came here from other cities and endeavored to capture the marauders and notwithstanding the combined efforts of the authorities, failed to arrest any persons directly implicated in the outrages.

The police express the belief that the outrages were committed by a roving band of expert criminals who have departed for other fields.

FIVE LIVES LOST

Destructive Storm Sweeps Through the Southland.

Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 19.—Communications from points in Mississippi, Arkansas and Tennessee for a distance of several miles report that territory to have suffered from one of the most destructive rain and wind storms experienced in years. Five lives are known to have been lost and great damage done to property and crops. Railroad traffic from this point is completely demoralized by numerous washouts and many trains have necessarily been annulled.

From the reports so far received the greatest damage occurred in the central and delta regions of Mississippi.

HOMEWARD BOUND

The President Is Once More Sailing on the Deep Blue Sea.

EN-ROUTE TO PORTO RICO

After a Day Spent on the Island He Will Start For Home Where He Is Due Nov. 27.

Before Leaving Colon the President Paid His Respects to Carping Critics.

Colon, Nov. 19.—President Roosevelt and his party sailed Saturday night at 10 o'clock for Ponce, Porto Rico, on board the United States battleship Louisiana. He is due to arrive at Ponce on Wednesday. From there he will cross the island to San Juan by automobile for a one-day visit to the capital. He will embark at San Juan for Hampton Roads on Thursday and expects to reach Washington on Tuesday, Nov. 27, in time to spend Thanksgiving day at the White House.

After riding on horseback and through the muddy streets of Colon Saturday afternoon, the president went to the residence of Mr. Biers, general manager of the Panama railroad, for dinner. At half past 8 o'clock President Roosevelt reached Pier No. 11, where there was an enthusiastic gathering of at least 800 persons, principally canal employees at Cristobal and other points along the line. Here the president ascended the bandstand and made a thirty-minute speech. In giving his impressions of the work on the canal he said he was pleased with what already had been done, and paid his respects to those who had adversely criticised the work.

"How about Poulitney Bigelow?" came from among the auditors.

With much deliberation the president remarked that in every large work there was always someone to find something that was not done as it should have been. But the employees should on no account pay attention to such criticisms, as the critics would sink out of sight, while the work the men were doing and had done would remain long after all criticism had been forgotten. President Roosevelt said also that he was so impressed with the magnitude and greatness of this work that he would like to see one of his sons engaged therein. He congratulated all the heads of departments upon the work being done and with especial warmth he congratulated Captain George R. Shanton on his success in maintaining order in the canal zone and in perfecting the splendid police force under his control. In conclusion the president said he would like to remain longer on the isthmus, but that it was necessary for him to get back to his work in the United States.

Amundsen Warmly Welcomed.

Christiania, Nov. 19.—Captain Roald Amundsen and his companion explorers arrived here Sunday afternoon on board the steamer Hellig Olaf. They were transferred to the coast defense iron clad Norge. A salute of fifteen guns was fired from the fortress, and the explorers were welcomed by a number of officials and prominent citizens. A banquet was given last evening in their honor.

STOMACH'S IMPORTANCE

How to Strengthen it so That it Will Act as it Should

The stomach is the principal organ concerned in the digestion of food. If it is weak, inactive or out of order and unable to properly digest the food, the body will soon be in a state of semi-starvation.

Then, too, when the stomach is weak, the food is not properly digested and lies in it for hours, decomposing, fermenting and forming poisonous gases and ptomaines that are absorbed into the blood.

To enjoy good health, it is absolutely necessary that the stomach and digestive organs should be strong, and no other remedy equals Mi-o-na in strengthening and giving tone to the whole digestive system.

Relief from the use of Mi-o-na is permanent and lasting. Use Mi-o-na for a few days, and the digestion will be good, the appetite keen, and there will be no nausea or distress after eating, no sleeplessness, no nervousness, and the headaches, backaches and disturbed heart action that are the direct result of a weakened stomach will soon be overcome.

Mi-o-na is sold under an absolute guarantee that the money will be refunded unless the remedy does all that is claimed for it. Ask F. B. Johnson & Co. to show you the guarantee which they give with every 50-cent box.

While Joe Michael and a livery man from Knightstown, were driving to Carthage about six o'clock, Saturday evening, their horse walked off a high bank, turning the buggy over and throwing the occupants into a corn field. The rain came in good time for the wheat.

The revival services at the M. E. church under the preaching of Rev. Beck is growing in interest. Mr. Beck is an able speaker and preaches the gospel in a plain forcible style and anyone can understand his duty from his preaching. One thing Mr. Beck is doing, that while he is the pastor of the church, he is also able to conduct the revival services. That is what the pastors in the larger churches in the city cannot or will not do.

Wm. Jordan and Robert Hutchinson are going to make a visit this week to Flemingsburg, Ky., and other points, and expect a good time.

W. A. Hysong left Monday for Kentucky to visit his aged father and mother and other friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Elihu Price, who were so severely hurt in a double runaway wreck a week ago Sunday, are improving as rapidly as can be expected, considering their age and the severe injury they both received. Their many friends are all anxious to see them out again. No man is missed more in Arlington than Mr. Price. He is a friend to everyone.

The probation officer made Arlington a visit the other day, looking after truants, who are not attending school. Parents should look out and keep their children in school or they will get into trouble.

There is a great deal of sympathy here for Hinshaw and the woman is blamed for his error more than he is. Would it not be better for Gov. Hanly to be more lenient and try another parole. Sometimes prosecution is as bad as persecution.

Dean Stanley, who is now at Indianapolis attending commercial school, is visiting home folks. He is succeeding well with his studies.

Bliss Stanley who has been out in Montana for some time, arrived at home Friday last, looking well. Home folks were all glad to see him.

Mrs. N. R. Farlow has convalesced enough from her recent illness to be able to visit her parents.

Frank Kendall, of Indianapolis, visited friends in Arlington Sunday and was the guest of Mrs. Susanna Stanley and family.

John S. Matthews visited friends in Rushville Sunday.

The Hon. Jas. E. Watson is right when he declares that lumber should go on the "free list." Then possibly we could get lumber cheaper. This country cannot furnish enough lumber anyhow. There is more money made and lost in this than in any one business in the United States. We could easily name quite a number of men who have gotten their start in a business way in the lumber trade; and a good many who lost nearly all they had in manufacturing lumber. Recently a lumber man of Evansville purchased a tract of land and paid $40,000, for it and will have clear when timber is cut off.

PINE-ULES for the Kidneys 30 DAYS TREATMENT FOR $1.00

IT'S YOUR KIDNEYS.

Don't Mistake the Cause of Your Trouble.

Many people never suspect their kidneys. If suffering from a lame, weak or aching back they think that it is only a muscular weakness; when urinary trouble sets in they think it will soon correct itself. And so it is with all the other symptoms of kidney disorders. That is just where the danger lies. You must cure these troubles or they lead to diabetes or Bright's disease. The best remedy to use is Doan's Kidney Pills. It cures all the ills which are caused by weak or disordered kidneys.

Thomas Kennedy, of 246 Meridian street, Shelbyville, Ind., employed in the furniture factory, says: "Three or four years ago I began having rheumatic pains in my hips. It would wear off at times, but any slight cold brought it on again. I commenced to have lameness in the small of my back, a bad feeling in the top of my head, and kidney secretions became unnatural and irregular. I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at a drug store, and they banished the trouble I have mentioned. I can confidently recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to others suffering from backache or other kidney complaint.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn-Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agent for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Manzan relieves instantly the pain caused by those blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles.
